Isaiah said—"With joy shall ye draw water out of the wells of salvation."
—Isaiah 12:3.

Roosevelt said—"I wish to preach not the doctrine of ignoble ease but the doctrine of the strenuous life, the life of toil and effort, of labor and strife."

Elsewhere we are printing the delinquent tax list for Lincoln county. It is longer than it has been for several years and was a big job to get ready. In order that the printers might get the more than four solid pages of the list ready for this issue it was necessary for Treasurer Souder to prepare the copy ten days ago. It is in this way that some descriptions appear upon which the taxes have been paid during the past week. It was impossible to hunt these descriptions out and remove them from the forms and so they are in print. This was the best that could be done and neither Treasurer Souder nor the printer is to blame.

The editor was the guest of the Men's class of the Paxton Methodist church last Friday evening and enjoyed attending the social gathering which these men hold every month. The men brought their families and the ladies brought sandwiches, pickles and coffee. That may have been the reason the men brought the wives but they seemed to enjoy having them there at the meeting and looked like they would have invited them even if they had not provided the refreshments. A number of young folks were present and lead by the music teacher from the high school they sang some songs. One lad played a violin solo which was a credit to him and his instructor. The evening was delightfully spent and a number of new friends made which will not be soon forgotten.

One of the special features of the home talent play "All Aboard" which was given here last week was the singing of several numbers by Royer Hastings. This young man is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Hastings of this city and he is in the senior class in the local school. His training has been under Mrs. M. H. Gilfoyl. We have not talked with her about this pupil of hers but if we thought she could teach us to sing like Royer sings we would start in taking lessons at once. His voice is pleasing, his control is perfect and the ease with which he covers the natural range of his voice gives a pleasing effect to the more difficult passages. We predict that North Platte will hear more of this young man and some day we expect to be proud of him if he keeps on improving like he has in the past year or two.

Edgar E. Pursel, 25, and Foy Luella Wertz, 21 Junesburg were granted a marriage license yesterday by Judge Woodhurst.

Mrs. Frances Schell left Saturday for her home in Logan, Iowa, after spending two weeks visiting at the home of her son George Schell.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Tracy will arrive today from Kearney and will spend the remainder of the week visiting their daughter, Mrs. S. Schwaiger.

The Queen Esther Group of the Baptist church will be entertained Thursday by Mrs. E. M. Sanders and Mrs. T. C. Hecht at 315 W. 7th street.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Weeks returned to their home in Grand Island Saturday after spending several days in the city visiting with relatives.

The small son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman White of Wellfleet underwent an operation at the Platte Valley hospital Friday.

Nyro Brown and the Harmony Quartette with Geo. Wintz musical comedy "EVE" at Keith Theatre, one night, Monday, October 9th.

VAUDEVILLE

KEITH THEATRE
Wednesday Only.

SHEAHAN AND STARTZMAN.

Two versatile artists who sing and dance the way the audience thoroughly enjoys. This act is full of pep and ginger and snap and is sure to be enjoyed by all.

THE MIDDLETONS.

A clever marionette exhibition in which the mechanical figures do every thing that humans do and better than most humans could.

HARRY LONG AND BILLY JACKSON.

Two clever comedians. Singers and dancers. This is their first season west and come highly recommended.

AL BARNES AND COMPANY

Comedy, magic juggling and illusions. The novelty feature of their act is showing just how it is done. These novel mirth provoking magicians will be a certain success.

Also a good five reel feature picture will be shown.
